

Neuron BPh is a biotech company located in Granada, which is dedicated to the discovery and the evaluation of molecules with neuroprotective activity to be used as drugs and nutraceuticals.

Neuron BPh is seeking for a Clinical Research Project Manager (ref. PM_09)

Requirements:

- Technical Education in Life Sciences (Pharmacy, Medicine, Biology, etc.)
- Previous experience in clinical and preclinical regulatory pharmaceutical development
- Previous experience in writing and assessing of drug registration dossier
- Knowledge of Spanish, European and International pharmaceutical regulation
- High level of English
- Result and business orientated
- Commercial attitudes
- Exceptional communication and skills
- Proactive and dynamic person
- Well-organized and decisive person

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate and write drug register files
- Coordinate research projects
- Follow through the pre/post authorization procedures, presented to the different regulatory agencies (either national or international)
- Establish of the most appropriate regulatory strategy
- Manage service suppliers
- Develop project reports
- Attend to national and international trade fairs, forums or any other activity to present the company's products
- Identify and build up new business opportunities.
- Work closely with the company's Business Development and R&D Departments

Salary and benefits:

- Work with one the Spanish fastest growing companies
- Work with a young team within a scientific excellence atmosphere
- Competitive compensation
- Permanent position

Contact: BIC GRANADA. Avda. de la Innovación, 1 P.T. Ciencias de la Salud
18100 Armilla (Granada) Tfno. 958 750 598 E-mail: jobs@neuronbp.com